

Princeton, Texas City Guide

WELCOME TO PRINCETON, TEXAS

Moving comes with a lot of details to keep track of. Print this guide at the local Princeton, TX library and keep it on your refrigerator or with your moving paperwork so important local contacts, websites, and community resources are always within reach.

As you settle into Princeton, having quick access to local resources — along with your moving and storage information — can help make the transition easier.

Your City Guide to Living, Moving & Getting Settled

Welcome to Princeton, Texas — one of the fastest-growing communities in North Texas. Located in Collin County near McKinney and Dallas, Princeton offers residents a balance of small-town living, newer neighborhoods, and convenient access to major employment hubs throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex.

Whether you're relocating across Texas or moving from out of state, Princeton continues attracting residents looking for more space, growing amenities, and a quieter suburban atmosphere.

PRINCETON QUICK FACTS:

PRINCETON, TX ZIP CODE

75407

PRINCETON, TX AREA CODES

972 & 469

COUNTY

Collin County

NEARBY CITIES

McKinney, Frisco, Greenville, Plano & Dallas

COMMON DRIVE TIMES:

- Princeton, TX to Dallas, TX: approximately 45–60 minutes
- Princeton, TX to Frisco, TX: approximately 35–45 minutes
- Princeton, TX to McKinney, TX: approximately 15–20 minutes
- Princeton, TX to Plano, TX: approximately 40–50 minutes
- Princeton, TX to Fort Worth, TX: approximately 1–1.5 hours

LIVING IN PRINCETON:

Princeton offers a quieter suburban atmosphere while continuing to grow with new neighborhoods, schools, retail centers, and infrastructure improvements.

Many residents are drawn to Princeton for its newer homes, growing community feel, and access to nearby North Texas cities.

As with many rapidly growing suburbs, residents often research commute times, schools, neighborhood amenities, and safety information before moving.

Princeton, Texas City Guide

GETTING CONNECTED IN PRINCETON:

EMERGENCY & CITY SERVICES

MUNICIPAL CENTER

2000 E. Princeton Drive
Princeton, TX 75407
972-736-2416

PRINCETON FIRE DEPARTMENT

Central Firehouse

510 Woody Drive
Princeton, TX 75407
214-960-4509

Firehouse 2

700 Monte Carlo Blvd.
Princeton, TX 75407
972-299-0730

Firehouse 3

1100 Myrick Lane
Princeton, TX 75407
214-960-5663

Firehouse 4

Physical Address
7777 FM 546
Princeton, TX 75407
972-736-1310

PRINCETON POLICE DEPARTMENT

2000 E Princeton Drive
Princeton, TX 75407
972-736-3901

PUBLIC WORKS

255 E Monte Carlo Boulevard
Princeton, TX 75407
972-734-2416 Ext. 8
Water, sewer, streets, trash & recycling services

PARKS & RECREATION

306 N. Main St.
Princeton, TX 75407
972-736-2416
Sports programs, facility rentals, parks & events

PRINCETON LOIS NELSON PUBLIC LIBRARY

323 McKinney Avenue
Princeton, TX 75407
972-736-3741
Books, public computers, internet access & community resources
Hours
Monday - Friday: 9 am to 7 pm
Closed on Saturday and Sunday

HELPFUL RESOURCES & WEBSITES:

City of Princeton

www.princetontx.gov

Princeton Public Library

www.princetontx.gov/library

Collin County

www.collincountytx.gov

Princeton Police Department

www.princetontx.gov/police

Princeton ISD

www.princetonisd.net

Princeton, Texas City Guide

MOVING & RELOCATION RESOURCES:

U-Haul Moving & Storage

www.uhaul.com

USPS Address Change

www.usps.com/move

Texas Driver License Updates

www.dps.texas.gov

Utility & Water Service Information

www.princetontx.gov

Texas Travel & Road Conditions

www.txdot.gov

NEED EXTRA SPACE DURING YOUR MOVE?:

As Princeton continues growing, many residents use self-storage while:

- Moving between homes
- Waiting on closing dates
- Downsizing
- Renovating
- Decluttering before a move

U-Haul® self-storage offers flexible options including indoor storage, climate-controlled units, drive-up access, and month-to-month rentals to help make moving and settling into Princeton easier.

READY TO MOVE TO PRINCETON?

Whether you're moving across Texas or relocating from out of state, U-Haul® offers moving trucks, trailers, moving supplies, and self-storage solutions designed to help simplify every stage of your move.

Reserve your moving truck or storage unit early, especially during busy moving seasons, to help ensure availability.